

UNITED STATES NAVAL AIR STATION

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

October 22, 1944

Dear Dad,

At the Jennie shoes grandmother sent me from San Antonio today and they fit me just right. They seem to be pretty good shoes.

We'll start out 3rd week of boot tomorrow and haven't done a thing yet. The other day we were all moved over to a safer building for the hurricane but the main force of the hurricane didn't hit here. All it did was blow down a few trees. It rained all that day and several of the guys were pretty scared. We were all soaked wet and didn't get to eat for two meals but we got to see a good bit of this base on is it big. There are about 50,000 men here

I read the football scores today but only about a paragraph about the game and am interested in them so send me as you have been doing.

I went to church again
this morning.

Well that's all for now

fellow. He is very unformal and very entertaining to listen to. He said he thought the war was going to last for at least 3 more years and he joked with us and every body really likes him.
