Dear Folks,

I have kinda gotten behind on my letter writing so I guess I had better get on the ball.

I received a few letters from you a few days ago and it will be better if you use my new address, the one on the envelope.

They have built showes here now and a recreation hall is nearly comp. Life on the island is getting better all the time.

There is a rumor circulating that the Navy is getting out of Military Government and going in the fleet, which everyone agrees is a very good idea.

That's all for now

P. S. I may have a surprise ^{Love} for you
