Dear folks,

I received a letter from you but the first time in quite a spell. The post office here was blown away by a hurricane which blew my tent down and several others. It did quite a bit of damage, but don't know of anyone being seriously hurt.

I if 5 airplanes worked up on the beach near here and I got a Nylon parachute out of one of them. I will try to send it to you. Maybe grandmother can make some shirt and a dress out of it.

I guess football season is about ready to start and I want to write you about the games and send you the clipping.

I don't know of anything else to write about so this is all for now

Love

P.S. I had a letter from Mr. Shiner
