Dear folks,
 One year ago today I left for boot camp and my active duty with the Navy began. I have travelled a bit and am now about as far from home as I could possibly be and I hope that a year from now I will be back with you. I believe that I'm more homesick now than I ever have been since it's boathouse season and I know I will really be a sad lad when Christmas rolls around I know that you miss me to and want me home but I guess will have to stand it a little longer. but if I'm not out by next September in time to start school I will be so desperate that I will go crazy.

I want you to be sure and send me all the college and High School football cutouts by air-mail I can't think of anything else

Hosto So Wada
 Frank
