Dear Folks,

I have just received some pictures from the camera room, that I took with the camera I bought in Tokyo. I was surprised that they came out as well as they did. I had had no experience with this type camera and was experimenting. The one of the girl by the cash register was taken inside. I have the negatives to a picture of my buddy and myself and of the ruins that I will send you later.

There is not much to write about over here except that today is Sunday and in 2 days it will be Xmas and in 4 I will be 19. Boy how this old age creeps up on you.

The new point deduction doesn't help much - (from 44 to 41) but I'm hoping that they won't take too long to get us out.
